History

of Jones and Partners and BW Group

Jones and Partners and BW Group have worked together on a number of bespoke client projects. Over time they have built a lasting business relationship bringing their own skills and expertise along with that of their staff to provide their clients with the essential services required to meet the ever changing requirements of the fast moving financial environment of today's world. Combining management and technical experience of over 100 years their reputation for service, professionalism and unstinting attention to detail has grown along with their business.

Their aim is to match most of the essential services offered by larger firms, but also to offer something different. The structures of both firms allows the committed management teams and key employees to have a more personal involvement in satisfying clients' needs.

Both businesses have grown through recommendations and references from the clients and contacts of the firms. They are able to offer a TRULY individual service helping you to “Preserve your Prosperity through their combined strength and commitment.”
